The Southern Part of Heaven

Located in the cosmopolitan town of Chapel Hill, the University of North Carolina features a tremendous academic reputation, one of the most successful athletic departments in the nation and a beautiful campus. U.S. News and World Report ranks UNC in the top 20 of all major colleges in the country in a survey of college presidents. Tar Heel teams are consistently ranked in the top 20 and UNC has won at least one national championship every year since 1980-81. Richard Moll, author of the Public Ivys: A guide to America's Best Un-dergraduate Colleges and Universities, calls Chapel Hill "the best college town in America . . . No one seems to know . . . what the perfect college town must have, but it all somehow came together here." Combining on-field success with off-the-field integrity, the University of North Carolina is truly situated in the "Southern Part of Heaven".
